Question 1

a. Write a précis of the following paragraph of about one third of the original passage:

"It is evident that those in the prime of life will be between the young and the old in character, subtracting the excess of either, and neither exceedingly confident (rashness is such) nor too fearful but having the right amount of both, neither trusting nor distrusting everybody but rather making realistic judgments and not directing their lives only to what is fine or what is advantageous but to both and neither to frugality nor to extravagance but to what is fitting. Similarly in regard to impulse and desire. And they combine prudence with courage and courage with prudence, while among the young and the old these things are separated; for the young are brave and lack self-restraint, the older prudent and cowardly. To speak in general terms, whatever advantages youth and old age have separately, [those in their prime] combine, and whatever the former have to excess or in deficiency, the latter have in due measure and in a fitting way. The body is in its prime from the age of thirty to thirty-five, the mind about age forty-nine. Let this much be said about the kinds of character of youth and old age and the prime of life."

6th Paper (Accounts and Auditing) for SAS Part-2 exam Session 8/2015

Q. No. 1: (A) :- In preparing the accounts of your company, you are faced with number of problems. These are summarised below:

(a) The managing director wishes the company’s good industrial relations to be reflected in the accounts.
(b) Although the sales have not yet actually taken place, some reliable customers of the company have placed several large orders that are likely to be extremely profitable.
(c) At the year end, an amount is outstanding for electricity that has been consumed during the accounting period.
(d) During the year, the company purchased Rs. 100 worth of pencils; these had all been issued from stock and were still in use at the end of the year.
(e) The company has had a poor trading year, and the owners believe that a more balanced result could be presented if a LIFO stock valuation method was adopted, instead of present FIFO method.

You are required to state which accounting concept the accountant should follow in dealing with each of the above problems and explain what each concept means.

(B) Explain the errors which are not disclosed by the Trial Balance.

(C) Pass Journal entries to rectify the following errors:

1. Returns Inward Book was short-totalled by Rs. 100/-.
2. Rs. 5810/- being cash paid to Hari Chand was debited to Radhey as Rs. 5010/-.
3. Rs. 1500/- worth of furniture purchased on credit was debited to Purchases Account.
4. A purchase made for Rs. 500/- was posted to the Purchases Account as Rs. 50/-.
5. Wages paid for erection of machinery amounting to Rs. 700/- was debited to Wages Account.
6. Goods purchased for proprietor’s use for Rs. 1000/- was debited to Purchases Account.
7. A sum of Rs. 1000/- written off from machinery has not been posted to Depreciation Account.
8. Rs. 100/- received from Ram has been debited to Shyam.
9. Rs. 1150/- received from Mohan was debited to his account.
10. Purchase returns worth Rs. 980/- to Kishan were not recorded in the books.

Q No. 2 (A) Mr. A commenced business on 1st July 2010, when he purchased a new machine at a cost of Rs. 8,00,000/-. On 1st January 2012, he purchased another machine for Rs. 6,00,000/- and again on 1st October, 2014, machinery costing Rs. 15,00,000/- was purchased. He adopted a policy of charging depreciation @20% p.a. on diminishing balance basis.

On 1st July, 2014, he, however changed the method of providing depreciation and adopted the method of writing off the depreciation @15% p.a. under straight line method with retrospective effect from 1st July, 2010, the adjustments being made in the accounts for the year ended 30th June, 2015.

If the depreciation has been charged on time basis, you are required to calculate the difference in depreciation to be adjusted in the Machinery Account and show the Machinery Account for the year ended 30th June, 2015.
